Ride Metra to the Ryder Cup at Medinah Country Club

September 25th - 30th, 2012

MEDINAH 2012

Getting There

Going to the Ryder Cup can be quick and hassle-free with train service on Metra's Milwaukee District West Line. From the Medinah Station it's a quick walk to the main gate.

If you are coming from downtown Chicago's Union Station, additional early morning departures have been added. If you live along the line or can conveniently access a station, you can drive and "park & ride" at the station most convenient for you.

On weekdays, limited daily parking is available at stations along the line. Regular parking rates will apply. On the weekend, plenty of parking is available, plus you can take advantage of Metra's $7 Weekend Pass, which is good for both Saturday and Sunday.

Train fares are based on the zone you will be riding to and from Medinah. Tickets should be purchased in advance at ticket offices. A one-way cash fare can be purchased on the train. However, if an agent is on duty where you board, the conductor will charge an additional $3.00.

Why putt around in traffic when Metra's Medinah Station is just a chip shot away?

Reading the Train Schedule

First locate at the top of the schedule the appropriate direction and the day of the week that you will be attending the Ryder Cup. Next, identify the boarding station on the farthest left column. Follow across the right to determine the departure times of trains at that station. Select the train time that best meets your schedule and move down that column to identify the arrival time at the Medinah Station.
