JIM WOODWARD

Q. Talk about your round today.

JIM WOODWARD: Well, I got off to such a horrendous start, I doubled 3 and doubled 5. So I guess if you're 5-over after five and you shoot 75 it's not too bad.

You just can't make bad swings, I'm still making about three or four real bad ones around. And that's killing me.

Q. How do you approach tomorrow?

JIM WOODWARD: With relief. That I'm done with this SOB.

(Laughter.)

Yeah, really. I mean I'm looking forward to tomorrow. Hopefully I'll have around where I don't make the mistakes and if not at least I'm finished with this beast.

Q. Is this the course playing any differently today?

JIM WOODWARD: Oh, no, it's just hard. I mean just every shot. You just can't miss a shot. You miss a shot you're going to pay. And I missed too many.

GARY ROBISON

Q. How did the course and the conditions affect your play today?

GARY ROBISON: I'm not sure. I just didn't putt it very good today. I didn't play too bad, I just -- it played about the same.

As a matter of fact, I thought the greens were a little slower and I thought they were harder, firmness-wise so I don't know. I just didn't putt very good and so that's how I ended up.

Q. What are you expecting to do tomorrow?

GARY ROBISON: Well, just do the best we can. Try to put it in the fairway and which I did most of the time today, really, and I just didn't hit very many good irons and then I didn't putt it very well and didn't chip it very well. So I just wasn't very good. But that's why I shoot what I shoot.

DENIS WATSON

Q. Great shot on 9.

DENIS WATSON: Oh, yeah, that was about the only highlight of my week so far.

Q. Take us through it?

DENIS WATSON: I hit a 3-wood off the tee and just a little off the fairway. And hit a 9-iron from 144 and I jarred it.

So that was sort a surprise that it went in.

Q. Pretty solid round, what are you expecting to do tomorrow?

DENIS WATSON: Just hope I play better. I've been playing so indifferently that -- I've had a bad knee and I feel I can't hit it at the moment. I'm
