SCOTT SPENCE

Q. Can you go through a brief description of your round for today?

SCOTT SPENCE: Well, you know, I really don't know, quite honestly. I doubled my two day total in one day. So I fell over today. Making the cut yesterday afternoon, you know, it was a long afternoon because I played in the morning and it was very difficult emotionally, up-and-down, up-and-down, are we going to make it, are we going to miss. I was packing, getting ready to go home. And we make the cut.

So and then you got to change gears. I felt really good on the golf course today. I thought the routines were good. My caddie and I gelled real well. But the golf wasn't there today.

Q. How did the course layout and conditions affect you today?

SCOTT SPENCE: Quite challenging. So, the harder it is, normally the better I do. I'm making bogeys from middle of the fairway. And then I hit it in the rough and I'm making birdies, you know. Well not enough birdies.

But I'm happy to be here. It's the first cut I've made in the six Majors I've played in. So it's a different atmosphere for me mentally. So I got to figure out -- I'm just going to have fun, you know. The least I can make is 33-75, so. But if I play really well tomorrow I might make 34. So we'll see.

Q. What are you going to try to tweak for tomorrow?

SCOTT SPENCE: I don't know. I just got a lousy feeling going right now. And I'm going to try to go back to my bread and butter shot, which is left-to-right. I'm driving the ball absolutely perfect. Couldn't hit a green to save my kid's life, you know.

So we'll see how we figure it out. I'm going to continue to smile and talk to the crowd and take it all in. So I'm going to enjoy it.

DAVID LUNSTROM

Q. How did it go out there today?

DAVID LUNSTROM: The back nine I played okay. The front nine was terrible. I hit a few good shots and made a couple birdies and hopefully it will be better tomorrow.

Q. How did the course layout and the conditions affect your play today?

DAVID LUNSTROM: It was real challenging. I thought -- the main thing that hurts a lot of club pros is they play pretty good, but they don't play in this kind of rough. And when you get in there you just slash at it, you try to get it out.

Q. What are you going to try to tweak for tomorrow?

DAVID LUNSTROM: Oh, just slow down and see if I can get the knack of it. I just don't have the knack of it. But I enjoyed playing, it's been a great tournament.

BILL LOEFFLER

Q. Talk about your round today. How do you feel about it?

BILL LOEFFLER: It's the worst round of golf I've ever played in my life.

Q. Has the course changed at all over the last couple days?

BILL LOEFFLER: No, it's still real difficult. It's still windy. And it's just very disappointing.

Q. What do you have to do tomorrow?

BILL LOEFFLER: I hope I show up. I hope I show up. I don't know, to tell you the truth. I'm at a loss. So we'll see. But that's golf. That's golf.
